Pension. Compassionate Gratuity
K. Abdul Khader - late Clerk,
Lahoring Department, Mangalore
- Grant to father - Sanctioned

Mangalore.
13--7--51.

To

The Secretary
Government of Madras,
Finance (Pension) Department
Fort St. George, Madras 9.

Humble petition of K.Sheik Moiddin, duffedar, Collector's Office, Mangalore residing at Kudroli, Mangalore.

Sir,

The petitioner having served the Madras Government faithfully for 41 years retired from service on 1--7--47. He is in receipt of a pension of Rs.9--6--0 plus temporary increase of Rs.4--0--0. His only son K.Abdul Khader who was employed as clerk in the office of the Assistant Rationing Officer, Mangalore South died of typhoid on 14-6-51. He has put in 3½ years service. The then Collector, Mr. J.F.Saunder taken pity on the petitioner appointed his son as a clerk in the Ration Department so that in these days of high cost of living the petitioner can find food himself and his family. Now the petitioner is helpless as also his wife and two children. There is no member in the family who can earn a living and bring food for the aged petitioner and his wife.

The petitioner belongs to the Muhamadan Community which is a minority in India.

If the Government does not come to the rescue of the petitioner, death by starvation.

The petitioner has centered hopes upon his son and expected a bright future for the son and a comfortable career for the petitioner. Now all his hop are blasted and the future looks very gloomy to him.

He earnestly prays that the Government may be graciously pleased to sanction some pensionary grant in consideration of the faithful service of the petitioner and the premature death of his only son who was the only bread winner of his family and who served the Government faithfully for a period of about 3½ years when he was just out of teens.

Your obedient servant.

Petitioner.

Read:- Govt.Endt.No.50575-K-51-1 Rev. dated 24-7-1951.

From the Collector of South Kanara L.Dis.22809-51 dated 27-9-1951.

Ref:- Board's Ref.B.9884-51-1 dated 31-7-1951.

The petitioner is a retired Duffadar of the Collector's office and is receiving the usual pension. His son, Janab K.Abdul Khader, who expired on 14-6-1951 joined the Rationing Department in Mangalore on 11-7-1947 and had put in a service of only 3 years 11 months and 3 days. He was an outsider and his service in the Rationing Department was temporary and non-pensionable. G.O.445 Food dated 16-4-1947 which prescribes the condition of service of the employees in the Civil Supplies Department does not provide for the grant of any compassionate gratuity in the cases of the kind. Though it is seen from the Board's Reference No.9879-F1-51-2 dated 30-7-1951 that the question of applying retired, invalid or compassionate gratuity rules to the employees of the Civil Supplies Department is at present under consideration by the Government.. The petitioner will not be eligible for any compassionate gratuity as the total period of service put in by the deceased in the Civil Supplies Department is less than 5 years.

The service register of the deceased is enclosed.

Resolution.

Submitted to the Government.

2. In the circumstances reported, the Board submits that the petitioner is not eligible for any gratuity under the existing rules and also under the proposed scheme of gratuity to temporary employees in the Civil Supplies Department which is not yet finalised as the deceased had put in a service of less than 5 years only.

Submitted to the Government.

2. In the circumstances reported by the Collector the Board agrees with him and supports his recommendation to treat this as a special case and grant a compassionate gratuity of Rs. 648/- (Rupees six hundred and forty eight only) being twelve months pay at Rs.54/- per mensem which was last drawn by the deceased in favour of K.Sheik Mohideen, retired duffadar, Collector's office, Mangalore.

1. Board's ref. No. Z.98/52-1 dated 17-1-52.
2. This office L.Dis.22809-51 P dated 27-8-51 to the Board of Revenue.

THE petitioner is a retired peon of the Collector's office, He is in receipt of a monthly pension of Rs. 13-6-0 inclusive of the temporary increase. He is the registered holder of a small piece of land measuring about 7 cents with a small house on it in Kasba Bazaar village of Mangalore taluk. The plot with the house may be valued at Rs. 4,000/- The deceased (the petitioner's son) who was a temporary clerk in the office of the Asst. Rationing Officer, Mangalore (North) had insured his life for Rs. 1000/- and this amount was drawn by the petitioner. Out of this amount, the petitioner had defrayed the medical bills to the tune of Rs. 500/- on behalf of his deceased son and balance was said to have been spent by him for discharging the debts incurred in connection with the funeral etc.

2. The deceased, being the only son of the petitioner, was the prop of the family. On account of the untimely demise of his son, the life of the petitioner and his wife who are 65 and 45 years of age respectively has become miserable and both being old are not in a position to eke out their existance with the meagre pension the petitioner is getting at present. Considering the plight of the petitioner and his wife I recommend that this may be considered as a special case and a compassionate gratuity of Rs. 650/- beinga round sum equal to one year's pay which was last drawn by the deceased clerk may be sanctioned. The monthly pay last drawn by the deceased clerk was Rs. 54/-.

3. The descriptive roll of the petitioner is enclosed.

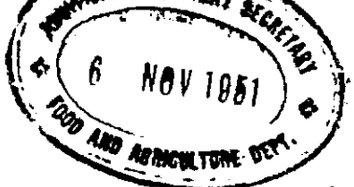
The petition at pp 1-3 CF and the reference from the Bd of Rev (& R), at p5 CF and the Rev. Deptt notes from p1 above may be perused.



76341

The request of the petitioner who is a retired Duffadar in the Collector's Office, Mangalore is that some pensionary grant may be made to him in consideration of his faithful service and the premature death of his only son who was employed temporarily as a clerk in the Rationing Office, Mangalore. It is reported by the Bd. of Rev (S.R) that the petitioner is not eligible for any gratuity under the existing rules. Rev. Deptt have transferred the case to this Deptt for consideration of the petitioner's request for grant of compassionate gratuity on behalf of his deceased son who was working as a temporary clerk in the Rationing Office. in the light of the scheme for grant of gratuity to the temporary employees in the C.S. Deptt which is under examination in this Deptt.

(12)

2. It is submitted that the scheme under consideration in this Deptt is one of extending the Madras Retiring and Invalid Gratuities (Non Pensionable Estt) Rules, 1941 and not the Madras Compassionate Gratuities (Non Pensionable Estt) Rules, 1941 to the temporary staffs employed in the C.S. Deptt. under the Madras compassionate Gratuities (Non-Pensionable Estt) Rules 1941, a compassionate gratuity shall not ordinarily be granted where a deceased Govt Servant had rendered less than ten year's service. It is reported that the deceased son of the petitioner had put in only a service of only 3 years and 11 months and 3 days. The petitioner is not therefore elegible for any compassionate gratuity on behalf of his deceased son.

3. The petitioner's request is that for grant of some pensionary grant in consideration of his faithful service as a Daffadar in the Collector's Office Mangalore and the premature death of his earning son who was the earning member of the family. It is therefore appropriate that Orders in the matter should issue in Rev Deptt. This may therefore be re-transferred to Rev for issue of Orders.

Please see the notes from p. 1 ante.

2. As regards para 3 of F & A note on pp.3-4 above, it is submitted that the expression "pensionary grant" has been used by the petitioner loosely. He can only mean the grant of "compassionate gratuity", consequent on the death of his son since the petitioner is already in receipt of a pension of Rs. 13-6-0 p.m. Further, both the Collr. and the Bd. refer only to the grant of compassionate gratuity and not pension to the petitioner. However, the file need not be retransferred to F & A now. For the reasons stated by F & A in para 2 of their note on p. 3 ante, the Bd. may be informed that the petitioner is not eligible to any compassionate gratuity on behalf of his deceased son.

3. The remarks of Finance may be invited.

Rev no 8044/P/51

In the case of non-pensionable employees, as in the present case, the Compassionate Gratuties (Non-pensionable Establishment) Rules 1951 shall apply. This case is more or less analogous to the case disposed of in G.O.No.973 Rt. Fin., dated 14-11-51. This Department's note on pp.5-6 of the above G.O. may, in this connection, be perused. The service rendered by the deceased clerk in the Rationing Department being less than 10 years, Compassionate Gratuity can be granted for the benefit of the parents of the deceased, if the case is treated as a special one. The Board of Revenue may first be asked to offer its remarks whether it recommends compassionate gratuity as a special case to the dependants of the deceased clerk, and if so, what amount, under the Compassionate Gratuity Rules at Flag (L). The usual particulars to be furnished in the case of Compassionate Gratuities viz., particulars of assets and liabilities, number and age of the dependants of the deceased will have to be furnished by the Board. On receipt of the Board's specific recommendation, orders of the Committee administering Compassionate Gratuities will be taken by this Department.

5. Under Rule 7(i)(b) of the Madras Compassionate Gratuities (Non-Pensionable Establishments) Rules 1941, compassionate gratuity shall not ordinarily be granted where the deceased Govt. servant had rendered less than 10 years service. In this case, the late Govt. servant has put in a service of 3 years, 11 months and 3 days. Hence the family of the deceased Govt. servant is not ordinarily eligible for the grant of a compassiona gratuity. But the Collector has stated that the deceased being the only son of the petitioner was the prop of the family and that owing to the untimely demise of his son, the life of the petitioner and his wife has become miserable and both being old are not in a position to eke out their existence. He has therefore recommended that a compassionate gratuity of Rs.650/- may be granted as a special case. In the circumstances reported by the Collector, the Board of Revenue has agreed with the Collector and has recommended the grant of a compassionate gratuity of Rs.648/- to the father of the deceased as a special case.

The maximum amount that may be given in this case is Rs. (54 + 22) × 12 = Rs.912/-.
